EARLY ELECTION NEWS

Shows Up Plenty of Rain and a Full Vote.

And Both Political Parties Working Like Beavers.

There is Little Said, However, About the Prohibition and Greenback Vote—Desperate Fight in New York and Indiana

UNITED PRESS HEADQUARTERS, NEW YORK, Nov. 4, 1884.

The following loss of comparison in collecting and sending out returns of the elections of Tuesday, November 4, 1884, will be used:

For the Presidential ticket the comparison will be with the vote of the Congressional districts in 1882.

For Governor and other State officers and for members of the State Legislatures, with the last State elections in the respective States.

For constitutional amendments no comparison will be attempted.

Ohio.
CINCINNATI, Nov. 4.—The election in Cincinnati was in striking contrast to that held in October. There was no heavy rain, no Deputy Sheriffs, and but very few policemen around the polls. As a consequence there was scarcely any feeling perceptible, and little or no danger of disturbance. The result of the day's work, by its quietness, and the Republican gains, will show conclusively that deputy marshals, deputy sheriffs, and special policemen are unnecessary at the polls, and that the trouble and murders that were produced by the appointment of the police men as deputy marshals, and a later attempt to offset this by appointing deputy sheriffs and special policemen.

The vote up to noon was not quite as heavy as it was at the same time October 14, but it well made up to it. The steady drizzling rain, and many delicate and indifferent people from the polls, but it did not increase the Democratic vote as much as bad weather is generally credited with doing, as the bulk of the vote was cast before it began. The Republicans without noise done very effective work through their tremendous citizens' committee.

late Democratic gains. Closely, gloomy day.

DAYTON, O., Nov. 4.—It is raining hard, but the election is passing off quietly. Ten repeaters have been taken in the night and no trouble at all. A light vote has been polled thus far. Republican gains are reported in the country.

TOLEDO, O., Nov. 4.—Steady rain has fallen since midnight. Nevertheless a heavy vote is being polled. It is now slightly in excess of the October vote at the same hour. Indications point to the heaviest ever polled in this city. Everything quiet.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Nov. 4.—The election is passing off quietly. A heavy vote is being polled. Republicans claim gains over the October vote.

Massachusetts.
BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 4.—The weather was cloudy and threatening. There were four tickets in the field, Democratic, Republican, People's and Prohibition. The vote was large. All of these tickets have Electoral, Congressional and Congressional candidates. The Republican candidate for Governor is George D. Robinson, present incumbent. The Democratic candidate is William C. Endicott. The People's candidate is John C. Coffey; Prohibition, Julius H. Sooley, of Amherst.

New York.
BUFFALO, N. Y., 4.—Election day opened with a pouring rain, which cleared off at 8 o'clock. At that hour the polls were crowded, and by 10 o'clock the vote was in. Governor Cleveland voted in the First district poll of the Ninth ward at 8:30, and left at 9:15 for Albany. There was a pleasant little scene when the Governor appeared. Democrats and Democrats cheered as he came up. Half a dozen tattered tickets, the Governor declined all with thanks, saying, "I am supplied. You know a fellow can't eat but one set." The Governor was invited to step inside the polling place and cast his vote, but he laughingly declined. "I'll take my place in the line. They might raise an objection if I got too near the box." He cast his vote in the line, and the line pointed to a heavy vote, with a majority of 1,300 to 1,500 for Cleveland in the city, and the election of Lockwood, Democrat, to Congress.

Brooklyn, Nov. 4.—The polling places in the city were open at sun rise. Long lines of voters stood patiently awaiting their turn. Much feeling was expressed in Republican districts against Independents, who are conspicuous in the denunciation of Blaine. The Republican disaffection in the First, Seventh and Twelfth wards tended to swell the majority for Cleveland. It is estimated that 75 per cent. of the vote was in by noon. Work was generally suspended. The Republicans concede 10,000 majority for the Democratic ticket in this city. Democrats say this is a ridiculous low estimate. The point to the Fifth, Sixth, Tenth, Twelfth and Fourteenth wards, which are strongholds of Cleveland, as evidence that the majority will be from 15,000 to 20,000 for Cleveland.

New York, Nov. 4.—At this hour, 2 p. m., with the morning fog and rain, the two great political armies facing each other for the final and decisive action which may seal the fate of one or both for a score of years to come. It is a battle, it must be confessed that it is anybody's battle. Nobody can say where victory will rest to-morrow night, and the armies are weary. Each will do its best, and the result will record the supreme political effort of modern times. In this State the excitement was never before so high. Thousands of sick beds will be represented at the polls. Every obtainable vote will be cast. In the last two days Cleveland's stock has improved. A had a million men in New York State will be greatly disappointed to-morrow night if he shall not have carried the State by a landslide.

Twenty-five thousand men have gathered here been arrested, some of them having riding toward five different places. Marshals, deputy sheriffs, and police are doing their best. A crush is expected to come when the balance of the morning men will vote. Extra precautions have been taken to prevent repeating at that time. All who are known as thieves or repeaters are looked up to prevent trouble.

New York, Nov. 4.—In this State, besides Presidential elections, the following candidates were voted for: Two Judges of the Court of Sessions, thirty-four Congressmen, members of the Assembly, and in various localities city and county officials.

Judges for Supreme Court will be elected, having been nominated by both Democratic and Republican Conventions. In twenty-six of the Congressional districts there are, in addition to the nominations of the two principal parties, nominations by the People's party, or by the Prohibitionists. In five of these districts both of those parties have made nominations.

There are in New York State, outside of New York and Brooklyn, 1,694 polling places and election districts, and in these there will be compared and sent out independent New York City and Brooklyn.

Comparison by the Western Associated Press in the State will be made with returns from 1882. The vote in that year stood: Garfield, 555,541; Hancock, 554,805, 13,800.

New York, Nov. 4.—President Arthur arrived at the Fifth Avenue Hotel Monday evening. He voted at his registered polling place on Third Avenue.

Rhode Island.
PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 4.—No State officers were voted for to-day. The closest race will test probably be in the Second Congress District, where William A. Price, R., is opposed by Charles H. Page, D., and A. B. Chadsey, P.

The weather was cloudy and threatening rain, but voting commenced early, and was very full.

Pennsylvania.
PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 4.—The day opened in Philadelphia with the weather overcast and threatening rain, but the vote was heavy. No State officers were voted for to-day in Pennsylvania, the voters in the State at large casting their ballots only for Presidential Electors and one Congressman at large.

Congressmen are to be selected in the twenty-two districts. The members of the Legislature in the various districts throughout the State, in the Presidential election of 1880, with which the vote of to-day will be compared. Garfield had a plurality of 37,237; the full vote being: Garfield, 444,704; Hancock, 407,428; Weaver (Greenback and Labor), 100,000; and the vote for the State at large was a plurality of 20,390 for Garfield.

The present delegation in Congress stands: Republicans including Elliott, 10; Democrats, 12; Republican Greenbacker, 1; the latter Brown, of the Thirtieth District, is a candidate for re-election against Kelly, Democrat.

In the Sixteenth District the Democrats made no nomination, but endorsed Kennedy, of the Greenback party.

The Legislature chosen to-day will elect a United States Senator to succeed J. Donald Cameron.

The present body has a Democratic majority of 15 on joint ballot. There are 30 seats in the House to be refilled to-day, as well as 35 seats in the Senate. It is estimated holding over 10 are Republicans and 15 Democrats.

Indiana.
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 4.—11 A. M.—The day opened with a heavy rain, and has been brisk from the start and challenging as yet. Democrats at headquarters of the Central Committee are much excited, but claiming to have favorable reports from all sections. The excitement grows hourly, and the feeling is bitter in some sections. Republicans are confident and are working hard.

Indiana, Nov. 4.—The day opened damp and chilly, with every indication of a continuance of rain that has been falling at intervals for the last few days. This was the condition feared by both parties as initial to getting out a full vote, but particularly so by Republicans. The heavy rain has rendered the roads heavy, so that the full vote in the rural districts is scarcely possible. In cities it will not make so much difference. It will certainly not injure the vote in Indianapolis. Both parties went into the contest with apparent confidence of victory.

Richmond, Nov. 4.—The prospect of a heavy vote in the State, however better, there are no State officers to be elected. In the Fourth Congressional District the fight was interesting, owing to the fact that there were two Republican candidates in the field, James D. Brady (white) and Joseph Evans (colored).

The Democrats only nominated a candidate for the purpose of bringing out a full vote for the Cleveland electoral ticket, as the Republicans have an overwhelming negro majority in the district. Brady is the nominee of the Mahone faction, while Evans was put in the field by the anti-Mahone, and has been supported earnestly by Governor Cameron.

When the election was over, the Democrats were arrested, some of them having riding toward five different places. Marshals, deputy sheriffs, and police are doing their best. A crush is expected to come when the balance of the morning men will vote. Extra precautions have been taken to prevent repeating at that time. All who are known as thieves or repeaters are looked up to prevent trouble.

Missouri.
ST. LOUIS, Nov. 4.—The weather was cold and cloudy to-day, but a full vote was polled. The Republican City Central Committee sent blank poll books to all the judges in the different precincts of the Ninth Congressional District. The books were consigned to the Republican judges with instructions to use them, award to their contents, return them to the Republican Central Committee, and to the Board of Canvassers. Filley's object is to use these poll books as a basis of contest in case of McLean's defeat.

Virginia.
RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 4.—Fully one-half of the force of the police were out here to-day made up of brokers, lawyers, and merchants. Such is the absorbing interest felt in the result that the gentlemen have cheerfully agreed to give up their time in this disagreeable business, thinking that it might have a quieting effect on the condition of the public mind.

Louisiana.
NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 4.—A dispatch to the Sun from New Orleans says: "Louisiana Republicans concede the State to the Democrats, though the Republican campaign is in good condition."

Connecticut.
WATERBURY, Conn., Nov. 4.—11 A. M.—Governor Waller has issued a proclamation against bribery and intimidation, especially directed against the Republican party.

Referring to the circular issued by Waterbury manufacturers to bid out their Democratic employees into voting for Blaine and Hancock, it said and the signature ought to be his when they should come to the polls. Republicans say no legal call has been issued for the election here, and that, if Democrats shall win, the Republicans will contest the election on the above grounds. The contesting should have all the town meeting, as claimed, as all the Democrats shall win, the Republicans will contest the election on the above grounds. The contesting should have all the town meeting, as claimed, as all the Democrats shall win, the Republicans will contest the election on the above grounds.

Waterbury, Conn., Nov. 4.—Republicans here say that legal call has been issued for the election here, and that, if Democrats win they will contest the election on the above grounds. The contesting should have all the town meeting, as claimed, as all the Democrats shall win, the Republicans will contest the election on the above grounds. The contesting should have all the town meeting, as claimed, as all the Democrats shall win, the Republicans will contest the election on the above grounds.

Hartford, Conn., Nov. 4.—The election in Connecticut are for Presidential Electors, Governor, and other State officers, and for Congress, half the State Senate, the entire House of Representatives and Judges of Probate Court.

The weather was overcast. The interest is intense, and the largest vote ever polled in the State was probably cast. Comparisons will be made with the Presidential vote of 1880, and the Congressional and Congressional vote of 1882.

North Carolina.
WILMINGTON, N. C., Nov. 4.—In addition to Presidential Electors North Carolina to-day elects a full State ticket and Judges of the Superior Court, members of the Legislature and county officers. The issues are the tariff, education, civil rights, and the negro vote in the eastern counties. All other issues are dwarfed by the two latter, and the color line was sharply drawn in nearly the whole State.

Concerning the result in this State the Star of this morning says: "We believe that North Carolina is about to give a majority to the Democratic party, and that the vote of the Presidential and State tickets; that we will have a large Democratic majority in both Houses of the Legislature, and that the vote will be a gain of one Democratic Congressman."

Some of the leading Democrats who have canvassed the State predict a majority of 12,000 to 15,000. It is generally conceded that the Blaine Electoral ticket will run ahead of the Republican ticket.

South Carolina.
COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 4.—Reports have reached this city that a terrible riot occurred last night between whites and blacks in Seneca City, South Carolina, on the Air-line road. One runner places the number of killed at twenty.

Columbia, S. C., Nov. 4.—Dispatches received last night from all parts of the State foretell a conflict of action in the Seventh ("Black") District between United States supervisors and State election officers. Arms and ammunition have been largely purchased by whites and blacks. A conflict of race has also feared in the city of Charleston and in Beaufort, Colleton and Berkeley counties. There are no reports from Edgefield and Richland counties. All through Edgefield County the negroes are greatly excited and under arms. It is rumored that the negroes killed Sunday night in an attempt to arrest one of Blackwell's murderers.

In several of the counties the Republicans have determined to vote on tickets for members of the Legislature in every one of the seven State boxes in order to strike the proper note. The Democrats have taken under the State law this is fraudulent voting, and wholesale arrests will follow.

New Hampshire.
CONCORD, N. H., Nov. 4.—In the blizzard election in this State to-day, the Democrats were elected Governor, five members of the Executive Council, twenty-four Senators and 325 members of the House of Representatives. The Democrats have taken upon the advisability of holding a convention to revise the Constitution.

All parties are expected to give up their tickets in nearly all the larger cities and towns, while in the smaller places only Republican and Democratic ballots were distributed. The several hundred names are Moody Currier, R., John M. Hill, D., Larkin D. Mason, P.

And SPRING WAGONS.

Our Undertaking Department will, in future, be under the entire control and management of Mr. JOHN PORTER, who will attend in person all matters entrusted to his care.

MYALL & RILEY,
16, Sutton Street.

... vote of 1891 was: Garfield, 4,852; Hancock, 40,794; Weaver, 528; Neal Dow, 180, and the gubernatorial vote in 1892 was: Hale, R., 38,402; Edgerly, D., 39,911; scattering; the campaign has been conducted with great vigor. The weather was cloudy and threatening, but a full vote was polled.

Florida.
JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Nov. 4.—The polls opened at 8 o'clock. The weather was fair, which indicates a full vote. The principal features of the canvass have been a combination of Independent Democrats with Republicans on the State ticket. The campaign was very lively, especially in the Second District, where strong efforts have been made to beat Hubbs, Republican, the present representative.

Besides electing the full State ticket, Electors and Congressmen, the question of holding a Constitutional Convention will be voted on. The probabilities are that the Democrats will sweep everything. Comparison will be made on the State and National tickets with 1890, and on Congressmen with 1892.

Maryland.
BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 4.—The election to-day was for Electors and Members of Congress. All four parties have electoral tickets in the field for the Congressional fight. The Fifth and Sixth Districts are the only ones considered doubtful, now represented by Republicans. In scattering political comparisons were made, will be with the vote for Governor in 1888.

Delaware.
WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 4.—Presidential electors and a member of Congress will be chosen, together with a full county ticket in each of the three counties. The vote for President in 1890 was: Hancock, 15,375; Garfield, 14,131; Weaver, 130. Charles R. Love, the present Representative, is the Democratic candidate for Congress, and Anthony Higgins, the Republican.

New Jersey.
TRENTON, Nov. 4.—New Jersey to-day voted for Presidential Electors, seven Congressmen, and a full Assembly and part of the State Senate. The State in 1890 gave Hancock a plurality of 5,010, as follows: Hancock, 122,565; Garfield, 39,553; Weaver, G., 4,611; Love, F., 192. Comparisons on the vote to-day will be made with the above vote. The present delegation in Congress stands four Republicans and two Democrats.

Wisconsin.
MILWAUKEE, Nov. 4.—It rained steadily since midnight. A very large vote was thrown. The Germans voted and worked for Cleveland, indicating that Garfield's majority in Milwaukee of 3,000 will be reversed. The Independent Republicans stood by Cleveland, and advised to the Journal from the northern part of the State that the Norwegians, heretofore solidly Republican, worked for Cleveland. It is now evident the result in Wisconsin is close. It will be hardly possible to determine the result until Wednesday night.

CHAS. MITCHELL, colored, ravisher of Mrs. Waddell, confessed to a mob at Temple Texas, that the woman's husband hired him to commit the crime. Mitchell and Waddell were both lynched and hung.

A NEGRO'S DESPERATION

Is Resented by a Rioting Crowd of Whites.

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 3.—A sensation was caused at Martinville Monday. For some time there has resided in that village a negro named Thomas DeForest, whose wife is a white woman. The negro has become notorious as a resort for the most depraved characters in that locality. Monday afternoon, when a crowd of boys gathered in front of the house and began pelting the front with stones and dirt, DeForest emerged in a towering rage and the boys ran. One of them, named Peter Sweeney, seven years old, was overtaken and seized by DeForest, who boxed the lad's ears until he howled for assistance. A short distance away in the fields was a crowd of young men playing ball. They heard the boy's cries and saw that the colored man was apparently maltreating him. Several of them started over to the year, and one, named Patrick Green, ordered DeForest to let the boy go. DeForest warned Green to keep away. Green again commanded DeForest to let the boy go, and advanced with the intention of enforcing his demand, when DeForest drew an old fashioned pistol and fired into Green's face. The weapon was charged with shot, some of which grazed Green's face, while he was severely burned. DeForest then became alarmed and started back to his house. A crowd of ball players came running to the scene and proceeded to DeForest's house with shouts of lynching. They pounded the place with stones, tore open the door from his hinges, smashed in the windows and were about gaining an entrance when DeForest escaped from the rear of the house unobserved. He was discovered some distance away and the mob started in pursuit, and in the hope of eluding them he darted into the basement of a building, but found the door locked, and then drawing his pistol stood at bay.

The first of the pursuers to arrive was John Clifford, aged eighteen years. He saw DeForest beneath the stoop, and calling to his companions started down the two steps to seize him. The negro fired and the shot took effect under the left eye, inflicting a terrible wound. Clifford fell to the pavement and the crowd fell back horror stricken. DeForest then surrendered himself to Patrolman McCann, who locked him up. Clifford and Green were both taken to the Swinburn Dispensary where their wounds were dressed by Doctors Paris and Bowen. Clifford's injuries are of a dangerous character. DeForest was brought before Justice Clute and was committed to jail.

A BRUTAL HUSBAND.

John Murphy Kills His Wife Because She was Drunk.

DENVER, Nov. 5.—John Murphy, proprietor of the "Exchange" saloon, and a well known sporting man, was arrested Monday afternoon charged with murdering his wife. Mrs. Murphy died early Monday morning from injuries, so it is alleged, received at her husband's hands the night before.

Murphy went home at 4 o'clock in the morning and his wife being a little tipsy in opening the door for him he gave her a beating and pitched her when she lay down a window. He afterwards picked her up and took her into the house. Monday morning a physician was summoned and pronounced her suffering from internal hemorrhage. She made an ante-mortem statement, giving the details of her husband's treatment of her. The Coroner will hold an inquest to-day. An autopsy confirms the theory that death was the result of violence.
